Re: 15th YEAR OF WORLD T'AI CHI & QIGONG DAY – PATCHOGUE HONORED BY TOWN OF BROOKHAVEN SUPERVISOR AND TOWN COUNCIL

World T'ai Chi and Qigong Day – Patchogue at Shorefront Park (April 25, 2015): Edward P. Romaine, Town of Brookhaven Supervisor (R), presents Event Coordinator Laurince McElroy, of Water Tiger School of T'ai Chi Ch'uan in Medford (L), with a proclamation from the Brookhaven Town Council celebrating the event's 15th year in the Town of Brookhaven and the Village of Patchogue. During the presentation, Mr. Romaine joked with the attendees about recognizing his own need to take up the arts of T'ai Chi and Qigong to help relieve the stress caused by his job. Event organizers also received a letters-of-support from US Senator Kirsten E. Gillibrand, New York State Senator Tomas D. Croci (3rd District), and Supervisor Romaine, as well as a proclamation from the Village of Patchogue.
